

Darryl excelled as both a football player and coach and the Huskies are fortunate to add his experience to the boardroom. Darryl played four years of College football in the U. S. and has over fifteen years coaching experience, including five years with the Edmonton Huskies.