

First Rottier, then Whelan...

On May 14, 2009, the Edmonton Eskimos announced the signing of non-import, linebacker and long snapper, Greg Whelan.

The Eskimos did not have to look too far to find Whelan. Prior to his collegiate career, Whelan played three years with the Edmonton Huskies where he was a PFC All-Star in 2004 and 2005, when the Huskies won consecutive National Championships.

The Edmonton Huskies congratulate OL Gord Hinse, a former Edmonton Wildcat, on his signing with the Edmonton Eskimos as well.
