

Fred enters his fifth year on the Huskies' board and he has greatly contributed to the overall success of the team through his tireless work doing registrations at both the spring and main camps. Fred is an avid sportsman having coached and managed hockey teams for ten years and little league baseball for five years. Fred recently retired after 40 years in the construction industry.