

Entering his second year with the Huskies, Jim has proven to be a tireless worker and has greatly contributed to the Huskies' increased media exposure. Jim was also a key contributor to the success of the Canadian Bowl in Edmonton in 2001. Jim's excellence in media relations did not go unnoticed by the PFC which named him its media coordinator in 2002.